

The BASIS Certificate in Plant Nutrition – Waste to Land

- ♦ This course will be particularly useful for any advisers who are involved in the recycling of organic materials to agricultural land such as biosolids, compost and anaerobic digestate.
- ♦ Including individuals who work for water companies, biogas suppliers or waste material recyclers.
- ♦ Will also be extremely beneficial to anyone who is involved with the application of organic materials on to farmland, whether that is farm managers, advisers or agronomists.
- ♦ This could also include individuals who are interested in the applications of organic materials in a wider context such as Catchment Sensitive Farming Officers and farm inspectors.
- ♦ Dates: 22, 23 & 30 April, 1 May 2025
- ♦ Exam: 7 & 8 May 2025 (to be confirmed) – On-line
- ♦ Venue: Anglian Water, Milton House, Cambridge WTC, Cowley Road, Cambridge, CB4 0DL
- ♦ Course fees - £880 plus VAT plus Basis exam fee £425 / trainee (zero VAT)

Content

- ♦ Non-Livestock Organic Manures and Wastes as Nutrient Sources Application of Organic Manures and Wastes
- ♦ Environmental Issues Associated with Organic Manures and Wastes
- ♦ Quality Standards and Protocols
- ♦ Relevant Codes and Regulations
- ♦ Complete Syllabus

Elements

- ♦ Candidates have to pass two assessment elements to meet the module outcomes.
- ♦ The exam duration is 2.5 hours, as below:
- ♦ 3 out of 5 Short Answer Questions (80 Minutes) - 15 Minute break - 3 out of 5 Short Answer Questions (80 Minutes)
- ♦ VIVA examination assessing the ability of the candidates to apply their knowledge and understanding within the practical context.

Knowledge

- ♦ Prior achievement of the FACTS qualification is required.